

Joe Thompson. CFP, CLU, ChFC, CMFC

Summary

Standardbred Horse Industry

- Director for The Hambletonian Society – The Hambletonian Society is a non-profit organization formed in 1925 to sponsor the Hambletonian Stake Race. Its mission is to encourage and support the breeding of Standardbred horses through the development, administration and promotion of harness racing stakes, early-closing races and other special events.
- Owner of Winbak Farm – Locations in Maryland, Delaware, New York and Ontario, Canada.
- Currently Second Leading Standardbred Breeder in North America in Earnings and Wins.
- Currently Second Leading Standardbred Breeder of Two and Three Year Olds in North America.
- 2001 Sportseye Magazine Standardbred Breeder of the Year.
- USHWA “Breeder of the Year” for being the breeder of colt pacer, No Pan Intended for 2003 & filly pacer, Rainbow Blue for 2004.
- 2001 Times & Harness Magazine Standardbred Owner of the Year.
- Named Standardbred Breeder of the Year for 2002, 2003 & 2009. Bred a Horse of the Year in 2002, 2003 & 2009.
- Little Brown Jug “Wall of Fame” inductee 2008.
- Former Director of Delaware Standardbred Breeder’s Association.
- Partner in the Red Mile Race Track located in Lexington, Kentucky. The Red Mile is one of America’s oldest (1875) and most respected Standardbred racetracks.
- Director for the Lexington Trotters & Breeders Association.
- Former Director of Maryland Standardbred Breeders Association.
- Former Director of Maryland Cloverleaf Owners Association.
- Current Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, New York & Pennsylvania Standardbred Breeders Association Member.
- Current USTA Trotting Association Member.
- Former Trustee & Director for the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame in Goshen, New York.
- Current Trustee Emeriti for the Harness Racing Museum & Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY
- Current President of PA Breeders Association

Experience

Owner

Winbak Farm

1991 – Present (25 years) Chesapeake City, Maryland

Winbak Farm, founded in 1991 by Joe and JoAnn Thomson, specializes in standing, breeding, raising and selling some of the best Standardbred horses in the industry. Winbak’s flagship farm is located on 2,000+ acres of lush Maryland farmland, with operations extending into Delaware,

New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Canada.

Owner

Pacer Financial

2005 – Present (11 years)

President

PLANCO

1977 – 2001 (24 years)

First Lieutenant

Military

1966 – 1969 (3 years)

Responsible for Officer Selection Team First Army area. Set up program to visit, recruit and select Army Officer Candidates during the Vietnam War.